

The Most Influential Women in Bay Area Business

Jacqueline Moore

*Principal and general counsel,
Divco West Real Estate Services Inc.*

Residence: Berkeley.

Education: B.A. and J.D., Stanford.

Community involvement: Head Royce School; Foundation for Autistic Children's Education.

Proudest professional accomplishment: Helping restore the architectural integrity and economic vitality of the Ferry Building, one of the most important landmarks to survive the 1906 earthquake.

Advice for young women: Find a mentor! Someone experienced and wise, and who cares about your professional development.

Strategy for success in a tough economy: Just keep doing your job to the highest standards you can. It is these people who always rise to the top, no matter what the financial climate.

What makes you influential: I work with a group of talented, ethical and creative people in a company that plays an important role in the U.S. institutional real estate investment industry.
